Dean's Message

Dear students and parents,
Let me begin with a thought-provoking & inspiring quote by the great thinker Plutarch, "The mind is not a vessel that needs filling, but wood that needs igniting." This has gained overwhelming relevance in the present world, which is characterised by volatility, uncertainty, complexity, and ambiguity or VUCA.

The macro-environment is progressively becoming globalised, automatised, virtualised, networked, and flexible. Formal learning is shifting from 'degrees' to 'education', preparing students for life in a complex, rapidly changing world. Students need to learn to think laterally and critically and communicate clearly. Effective teamwork, a significant attribute to imbibe and cultivate leadership qualities that set them apart from others, is critical for the leaders of the future.

WPU School of Education seeks to offer cutting-edge, multi and interdisciplinary majors and minors from its four constituent units, viz., Media and Communication, Social Sciences and Humanities, Photography and Education. Each of these majors offers core subjects from the theoretical and conceptual perspective and electives from the point of view of specialisation, thus facilitating the professional preparedness & journey of the leaders and social technocrats of the future.

Let me end my note with quotes from two STEVES - Steve Case and Steve Jobs - which capture the essence of Liberal Arts at our University.

Steve Case, one of the most ignited minds, an American entrepreneur, investor, & businessman best known as the former chief executive officer and chairman of America Online (AOL) says, "I do think that a general liberal arts education, with a strong foundation & vertical specialisation, is very important, particularly in an uncertain and changing world".

Steve Jobs states, "It is technology married with liberal arts, married with humanities that yields us the results that make our hearts sing."

I invite you to the challenging & exciting intellectual environment at WPU School of Education, MIT World Peace University, and a journey that helps YOU define yourselves today and shape YOUR future.

PROF. SANTOSH KUMAR
Dean
School of Liberal Arts, MIT-WPU

Testimonials

Here's What Our Students Have To Say

MIT-WPU Department of Education provides an excellent platform for aspiring teachers like me. I found the curriculum to be very well-planned, engaging and up-to-date with the changing times. The faculty, who are knowledgeable and dedicated, are excellent guides to us. We were meticulously trained by them to conduct effective lessons and classroom management techniques were taught too. This practical experience helped us in honing the perfect skills necessary for the teaching profession. They have provided us with a nurturing environment with immense cooperation and support. I would like to express my gratitude to the entire team of this organisation for encouraging me to always put my best foot forward.

PURVASHREE JOSHI

I am fortunate to be a part of the MIT-WPU Department of Education. Apart from training and guiding us in the process of teaching & learning, we have gained guidance for our teaching career. The placement cell works a lot to provide us with career opportunities & guides to face the interviews. They also keep track of things & keep follow-ups ready. I am happy that with the help of a placement cell, I have been selected by a reputed institute as a language teacher. All the faculty members are guiding pillars of our life from the start of our learning process till we are recruited.

AISHWARYA JOSHI

I am one of the student placement coordinators and it's really fun working with the experienced lecturers. Our placement cell conducted various activities starting from electing the students as a student coordinator to the final placement. We went through various activities like Calyxpod registration and seminar on career-based and also got an opportunity to apply for the different schools which were offered by our placement cell. I am one of the students who got a placement with a good salary in a very renowned organisation. I would like to thank my mentor, my lecturers and the Department of Education, MIT-WPU.

KOMAL KUMARI

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the MIT-WPU Department of Education for helping me at every step of my professional career. The university provided me with the best possible platform to excel in my career interests. I am very happy because in the pandemic situation placement activities from college helped me to get a job. During my study period, I learned many things from the college faculties, they used to do a lot of activities. I am thankful to the MIT-WPU Department of Education.

DEEPIKA KUMARI

Peace Studies: Fostering Holistic Growth

Understanding the importance of inner and social peace and conflict management skills is crucial in today's world. MIT World Peace University has adopted UNESCO's core vision of 'Building Peace in the Minds of Young Men and Women' as its guiding ethos.

The university offers a mandatory course of peace studies that lays the foundation for spiritual peace & harmony. It explores new ideas and practices from various cultures to tackle the challenges of global peace and sustainable development. The university also plans to introduce an advanced postgraduate degree programme in Peacebuilding and Conflict Management that offers state-of-the-art learning opportunities to study traditional and contemporary pedagogies of peacebuilding and conflict management.

The main objective of this course is to prepare students to become agents of social change and genuine global citizens. It trains them in non-violent communication to promote peace and prevent violence in communities and workplaces. Furthermore, the peace studies module also acquaints students with diverse yoga practices that enrich their cognitive prowess and information base, refining critical thinking and enhancing their overall personality. This interdisciplinary course, developed with input from scholars and practitioners worldwide, helps students build knowledge of India's spiritual & cultural ethos. Additionally, the course covers essential conflict management knowledge and skills that are in high demand in today's corporations.
